The pitch? The Eiffel Tower drawn to embody the logo of the Climbing World championships has been printed in 3D. There it is passing from one famous hand to another, from the bottom of a cliff to a training gym...

Famous hands? Adam ONDRA, Anouck JAUBERT, Romain DESGRANGES, Alban LEVIER and Nicolas MOINEAU are some of the well-known names who have made the symbol of the world summit climbing travel.

For the teaser, they accepted to be the faces of their discipline in all its diversity.

Paraclimbing and lead, speed and bouldering: whereas they go the highest, the fastest or they are the strongest, they will all be present at the AccorHotels Arena and it will represent their biggest goal over the past two years.

Some of them will even combined up to three of the disciplines to compete in the combined ranking. Those are not confused: the Olympic movement will maybe, one day, reward the most complete climbers.

And this is the sense of the video: even though they have different physical qualities, all of these champions are part of the same big family, the climbing one. And this is great because this family will be entirely reunited from the 14th to the 18th of September. Are you really going to miss that?

It's now time to learn more about the Climbing World Championships 2016. To do so, take time to check the website on www.worldclimbing2016.com, which has been online for some time now. Curious ones, spectators, future volunteers, partners and journalists, you will find all of the information you need.
